

Capuchins to profess vows

LAWRENCEVILLE — Three friars will profess their final vows as members of the Capuchin Franciscans Saturday, Aug. 20, at 11 a.m. in St. Augustine Church, 220 37th St., Lawrenceville.

Bro. Greb

Receiving the vows of Brother Francis X. Yacobi, Michael Greb and W. David Nestler will be Fr. Francis Fugini, minister provincial.

Bro. Francis was born in South Bend, Ind. He graduated from Northern Illinois University, served as a personnel management specialist in the U.S. Army and worked in restaurant management in various cities.

*Bro.
Yacobi*

He took philosophy studies at Borromeo College of Ohio, entered St. Conrad Novitiate in Allison Park and will complete work on a master of divinity degree at Catholic University of America next May. While completing his studies in Washington, D.C. he also worked in pastoral care at Washington Hospital Center.

Bro. Michael is the son of Ralph and Dorothy Greb of Castle Shannon and a member of St. Anne Church. He entered St. Paul Seminary in Crafton and graduated from Duquesne University.

He worked in the chaplain's office at Kane Hospital and also helped at several area parishes before taking theology studies at Pontifical College Josephinum in Worthington, Ohio. Bro. Michael entered the Capuchins at St. Joseph Friary in Dover, Ohio, and later headed the adult education program at Our Lady of Peace parish and friary in Conway.

*Bro.
Nestler*

He completed studies on a master of divinity degree at Catholic University and worked as a parish catechist, with a shelter for AIDS victims and a center for the homeless while in Washington.

Bro. David is the son of Arthur and Mary Nestler of Greenfield and later of Murrinsville. He attended St. Fidelis Seminary High School in Herman and joined the Capuchin formation program at Borromeo College in Wickliffe, Ohio, where he earned a degree.

Bro. David earned a master's degree in theology from Catholic University and worked as a hospital chaplain, taught religious education and directed an RCIA program. He will be assigned to St. Cecilia in Rochester for his deacon internship in September.